From the mind of Management >>>

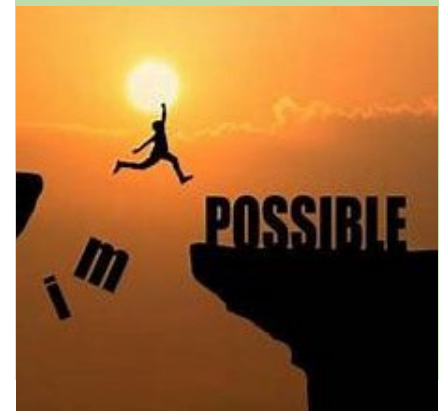

A year ago, I was reporting to the board that we needed drastic changes or suffer drastic results!

Thanks to a loving membership and some concerned friends we have been in black ink for a bit.

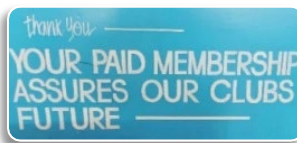

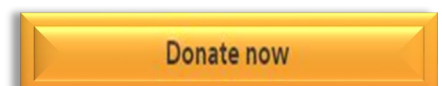

But the future depends on a strong membership and I would like to extend my gratitude to my fellow members of the Alano Club.

We continue to do the impossible one day at a time.

Love
Tony

MEMORY LANE

30 Years Ago ~ May 1994

Our Newsletter was called "The Club Chronicle".

The club held a straight pool tournament with a $10.00 entry fee.

The Club was hosting an annual Mother's Day Breakfast which included reduced prices for the Mom's along with a little something special.

Cinco de Mayo breakfast menu included Menudo, also Heuvos Rancheros and Chorizo con Huevos. Yum!

The Club was presenting it's Second Annual Jazz and Blues Festival in the Serenity Garden to include chicken BBQ and all the trimmings. This was a club fundraiser and tickets were limited.
