For helping Harvey to replace the grease trap and doing the heavy lifting. This was an 8 hour job and the club very much appreciates your help.

Outstanding! Thank you!

From the Mind of Management >>>

Those of you who did not make the heritage dinner, this is not the whole speech, but this is the part that resonates the most:
It Reads:
"A certain Bill Wilson in his speech of AA Today and Tomorrow (at the 3rd International AA Conference) said—
"Those that complain about clubs are quite often comfortably housed, fed, and warm, and that no Club is so damn bad that it hasn't got a plus sign. Clubs are something very worthwhile and here to stay."

Let's prove him right!!!
ALL Amigo's closed its doors years ago in addition to San Mateo, San Francisco and Sunnyvale that no longer exist. They are missed, but a bit too late.

Thank you for your attention. My hope is that we will be here for your grandchildren and great grandchildren. For today it is up to us."

Do you know someone that could be a dues paying member? I do! Let's ask.

Love
Tony

The Club Heartbeat

Our decaying gazebo in the Serenity Garden has been replaced!

Beth, Harvey, Kelly, Jorge, Nate and Adam helped tear down. Adam at HD remodels hauled it away. The Alano Club paid for the new materials. Many Paths One Destination transported said materials and they covered the full cost of the Labor to rebuild a bigger better gazebo for the club.

The Club Heartbeat

New Gazebo Alert!!

Thank you to the Board of Directors, Many Paths One Destination and all who volunteered.

Next time you visit the club, make sure to take a look. It is beautiful!
