A Cry For Help

"Hello, my name is Jessica. I am an upstanding member of the Alano Club of San Jose and a former employee.

I was blessed to have known Ed Perez. I also got the privilege to work with him on Thursday nights. In the short two years that I know Ed, I slowly came to appreciate and love him as a father. He was more than just an asset to the Alano Club. He was one of the very few people that actually took the time, money and effort to help. In my eye, Ed was a believer. He was so optimistic. Ed could take the worst and make it better. He led so many people to Our program, but rarely was recognized for it. When I heard he passed on, I didn't want to believe that the man who was supposed to walk me down the aisle would never be able to do that. The one thing that I am asking for, is that we all put our minds, bodies and souls into keeping the doors open at the Alano Club for the new and old timers, so that we might be able to pass Ed's love and kindness on.

Jessica J., A believer in the programs of A.A. & N.A."
