Why I Am a Member of the Alano Club of San Jose

By Denise D.

Who are You? “My name is Denise Davey. I have lived in San Jose for a few years now. I suffered from Alcoholism for many years. I got serious about my recovery on 06-15-18. Personally, I am the Mother of three. I’m fairly sarcastic (with a Potty-Mouth) and ‘most precious’ is I’m Steve Hill’s Best Friend (And not just on Facebook).

What age were you when you had your first drink? Explain: “I was about eight or nine years of age. Dad was a hard worker, and I would make him a drink just before he returned home from work. To make certain that he would love the drink, I began doing a little ‘taste sampling’.

When did you have your last drink or drug? “June 14, 2018.

How did you find out about AA? One of my co-workers told me the steps to take to get into Rehab. They worked!

When did you first find out about The Alano Club of San Jose? “At the Camp Recovery Center they mentioned the Alano Club, so after the Rehab session, I checked out the club. This was in September of 2018.

Why are you a Member of the Alano Club? “The Alano Club is very important in my recovery. The ‘Cup of Coffee’ meeting here at the club – which meets each weekday morning at 9:00 a.m. – has become my ‘Home Group’.

What Is Your Advice For The Newcomer? “Get a Sponsor. (And your Sponsor will probably ask you to buy a copy of the 12 and 12 as well as the Big Book, officially known as ‘Alcoholics Anonymous’.) Work the Steps. Pray daily to the god of your own understanding, and remember to ‘Keep Coming Back.’”
