My Fellow Club Members of the Alano Club of San Jose

As you may know, I have once again renewed my role as Club Manager, although a bit grayer. Kiki and Terisa have been helping me get up to senior speed as well.

At our Membership meeting on Sunday 2/26/23 we have elected four new members that are most willing to join with the other three to make our place a bit better. Newly elected members were Tony P., Kelly B, Bud N. and our very well known "Welcome Home" Eddie M. They will be joining Laura M, Ernie O. and Mark B.

We will be exploring the possibility to once again returning to a nine member board of directors. Be it seven or nine I serve at the Boards pleasure and hope to get a little more help from you.

Our Silicon Valley payroll is $3,700 a week, and we can't do much about that, but, if you have let your dues lapse a bit, you could sure help us get a better footing on a real problem and help our Club thrive in this economy. If for any reason you can't we understand, but, if there is some way that you can, please do. Your current membership helps us continue our mission. So please!

We are making some great changes in our kitchen, pie is back on the menu and I am in awe at how much talent we have in that area. Cindy was the first to sell out. Linda is our pastry queen and also willing to make our kitchen run a little better, in spite of me being behind the counter from time to time, I guess I just need to be closer to the pie .

Please believe me when I say " we need to grow or go" help us with the first part of that quote.

Love
Tony
