Member of the Month – Tony B. (CEO/Manager)

We would like to honor Tony B. as member of the month. Tony has been a pillar of our community since the 70's. He retired during the pandemic but recently came back as our temp manager. He continues to give to the Alano Club anything it needs. His commitment to keeping our doors open goes beyond what anyone could expect from him. Tony we are grateful for all that you do.

My Fellow Club Members of the Alano Club of San Jose

Well, a new month and what shall we do with it? Thank you all for your much needed help and support of our Club.

We plan on replacing the projector screen in Duncan Hall with a Ginormous television screen. Harvey can figure out a way for it to be held up, I hope.

Harvey is going full steam ahead with the Cinco De Mayo Dance next month. Terisa is co-coordinating with Don to get our new to us server on line, and coming out with some decals for your use in cars, home and office.

We need somebody very familiar with Microsoft Access data base program to get us back in the running with our membership tasks. A volunteer please!

The Board will hopefully be starting the process of seeking a new Club Manager. So if you have a yen, put it in writing and we will go from there. "Low pay with a counter balance of a heavy work load." Tell us why you think you have the vision for a really good Alano Club. Applications to be reviewed and the first interview prior to the May Board meeting.

Special thanks to Kiki (Antonio) and Terisa for volunteering to show the old guy all that he forgot over the years!

Ruben and Harvey did a great job of repairing and painting all areas near the counter.

Harvey also re-tiled the floor in the Women bathroom. Well done!

Love
Tony
